THE CITADEL GLOBAL COMMUNITY CHURCH

ONBOARDING CHECKLIST AND SCHEDULE

INTRODUCTION

The onboarding checklist and schedule is designed to serve as a guide on the induction and on-boarding process for new employees with the aim to help them settle properly into the ministry.

This is a breakdown of activities and task that is coordinated by the onboarding team to help the new joiner learn about the ministry, organization structure, her policies and culture, values and people as well as to understand their job expectations and KPI's.

Onboarding Team

- Department or Unit Manager/Supervisor
- People, Culture & Change (Human Resources)
- IT
- Finance & Account

New Hire Onboarding Task Allocation
Tasks for Managers	Timeline
Send a welcome email introducing your new hire.	Day 1
Coordinate a welcome meeting to kick off your new hire's first day and introduce the new hire to the team.	Day 1
Assign your new hire a mentor and/or onboarding buddy.	Day 1
Schedule your new hire's first day meetings, prioritizing intro calls with colleagues who will work closely with the new hire.	Day 1
Give the new employee an introduction to the ministry, including how their roles fits in and any performance expectations you'll have.	Day 2
Invite your new employee to recurring one-on-one meetings to provide regular check-ins.	1st Three Months of Resumption
Tasks for People, Culture & Change Team
Send out a new hire welcome packet that includes the forms and documents new hires must complete.	Day 1
Share essential ministry policies (e.g., hours of operation, dress code, employee handbook, SOPs, etc.)	Day 1

Document the new hire's role and compensation information in your HRIS system or records.	Week 1
Complete background check of new hire (Employee verification, Guarantors verification, Reference checks, etc).	Within the first month of resumption (Also role dependent)
Schedule a meeting to review the new hire's understanding of ministry's policies (same as above), Job Description & KPI's.	1st Three weeks of Resumption.
Schedule periodic reviews of important milestones during 90-day probationary period with new hire and the new hire's manager.	1st three Months of Resumption.
New hire evaluation with managers and confirmation.	End of probationary period
Tasks for Finance & Account Team
Add the new employee to the payroll.	Week 1
Confirm employee financial details	Week 1
IT Onboarding Checklist
Create an email address for the new hire.	Before Resumption
Set up account permissions for any platforms or software the role requires.	Before Resumption
Prepare a computer and any phone equipment or tech accessories a new hire may need.	Before Resumption
Mentor or Onboarding Buddy Checklist
Take your new hire on a tour of the office.	Day 1
Schedule regular check-ins throughout the first two weeks.	1st Two Weeks
Invite new hires to shadow relevant meetings or projects.	Though Probationary period
Be responsive to ad hoc questions throughout the day!	Though Probationary period

New Hire Onboarding Checklist

Required Onboarding Documents for New Hires
Benefits enrollment paperwork
Emergency contact information
Employee handbook featuring all company policies

Standard Operating Procedure manual
Payroll information
Employee Bio-data form
Non-disclosure agreement, non-compete, or confidentiality agreement (if applicable)
New Hire Orientation Checklist
On-Site Orientation
Show new hires their new office space, including important areas such as a parking spots, break room.
Create employee ID.
Set up the new hire's work space, including any equipment they may need (e.g., computer, phone, business cards, office supplies, etc.).
Place a welcome gift on the new hire's desk (typically company swag such as a mug, t-shirt, or stationery).

CLOSING

While this is a three months onboarding schedule, the onboarding and assimilation process of new employees is continuous and should be reviewed periodically to ascertain the progress of the new employee and areas of difficulty before the employee's first performance review. All resource or tool required for success in the role should be provided to the new hire.

Every member of the onboarding team will also be assessed on their responsible task through the onboarding process and period.

Prepared by: Sussan Afuwape
Reviewed by:
For: The Citadel Global Community Church
Date: 30th March, 2024